Our Scottish Heritage

JOHN KNOX (c. 1512-1572) was the outstanding leader of the Scottish reformation. As a schoolmaster and clergyman, he was raised in a Scotland that was religiously immersed in Roman Catholicism. The Scots were ready for a reformation of the Kirk that would result in a purer and simpler faith. After experiencing and embracing the religious and political views of John Calvin in Geneva, Knox returned to Scotland in 1559. The Scottish Parliament commissioned him and five others to write the Scots Confession. In 1560 this confession was overwhelmingly adopted, and became the original charter of the Reformed Kirk of Scotland. By this Act, the authority of the Bishop of Rome was rejected. In addition, The Book of Order (known as Knox's Liturgy) and the First Book of Discipline were adopted. Knox had led the Scottish Church into a reformation following the Calvinist tradition.

ANDREW MELVILLE (1545-1622) was outraged when he realized the Kirk was being ruled by civilian bishops, who placed church revenues in the hands of the state. He led a successful fight to purge the Kirk of such bishops, and succeeded in establishing the rule of the Kirk through elected presbyteries. In 1575, the General Assembly of the Kirk to which Melville was a Commissioner met in Edinburgh. The Assembly appointed a committee to prepare a new constitution, subsequently embodied in the 2nd Book of Discipline adopted in 1581. Melville was the leading spirit in its preparation. Thus, the Presbyterian form of Government was born.

FRANCIS MACKEMIE (1658-1708) trained for the gospel ministry at the University of Glasgow, and was licensed as a Minister of the Word (clergy) of the Reformed Kirk of Scotland in 1681. Coming to America in 1683, he founded at least five churches of which we know. In 1706 MacKemie and six other clergy formed the first Presbytery in colonial America at Philadelphia. Thus the Presbyterian Church in this new country became a reality in a large degree through the efforts of this great transplanted Scotsman.

WELCOME: “A Hymn of Praise”

Dear Old First Church--Beloved by all,
For deeds done in His name,
Responding nobly to His call,
Throughout the years the same;
Her past achievements we adore,
And for her future ask
That God will bless her as of yore
With strength for every task.

Dear Old First Church - Thy Saints in Heav'n
Rejoice with us today
And glory in what thou hast given
To help us on our way;
Oh! Thou the leader of our host,
Accept the praise we bring.
And keep us always at our post,
And to thy precepts cling.

Dear Old First Church -- Lead on, lead on
To greater heights for God,
Cease not thy work, though we be gone
And sleep beneath the sod;
Thy King is Jesus and he lives
To bless and prosper thee;
Dear Old First Church we pledge anew
Our service full and free.

Order of Worship

* CALL TO WORSHIP

O Come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and show ourselves glad in him with Psalms.

For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also. The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come, let us worship, and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

(From the Book of Common Prayer: As Amended by the Westminster Divines A.D. 1661)

*Hymn of Praise HB #275 @1779 A.D. (2nd Tune) "Amazing Grace"

David Hopper, Piper

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

(Confession of Sin Adapted from Scottish Reformer John Knox's Liturgy of 1560)

God, we have sinned against you. And yet, O Lord, as we acknowledge our sins, so also do we acknowledge you to be a merciful God, a loving God, to all who turn to you. And so we humbly ask you, for the sake of Christ your Son, to show mercy to us. Forgive the sins of our youth, and the sins of our old age. By your Spirit, O God, take possession of our hearts, so that, not only the actions of our lives, but also the words of our mouths, may be guided and governed by you. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, we pray. Amen.

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON: The mercy of the Lord is certain for all who call upon the Savior, the Holy Lord Jesus. The God of mercy has provided an atonement for sin in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Give thanks and praise for this gracious provision for our benefit and blessing.

*GLORIA PATRI: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost, As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end, Amen.

Response to God’s Word

*AFFIRMATION of FAITH from “The Kirk” Chapter XVI, Scots Confession

As we believe in one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, so we firmly believe that from the beginning there has been, now is, and to the end of the world shall be, one Kirk, that is to say, one company and multitude of those chosen by God, who rightly worship and embrace Him by true faith in Christ Jesus. The Kirk is catholic, that is, universal, because it contains the chosen of all ages, of all realms, nations, and tongues, be they of the Jews or be they of the Gentiles, who have communion and society with God the Father, and with his Son, Christ Jesus, through the sanctification of his Holy Spirit.
